

Application for grant to cover publishing expenses in Open Access journals

“Author payment” refers to the Article Processing Charge (APC) or similar fees levied by open access journals. As prerequisite for support the corresponding author should be affiliated with NMBU.

Corresponding author¹:

Position:

Email:

Department / unit:

Title of the article:

Journal with ISSN:

Journal is listed in DOAJ: Yes No (provide explanation in box for additional information)

Journal is included in DBH: Yes No, but is being evaluated (attach documentation)

Type of expenses to be covered:

Amount in NOK, or in other currency:

Date by which amount must be paid²:

The research on which article is based has been paid by external funding

No

Yes, but the external funding does not cover author fees³

Additional information:

The application including documentation should be sent to: publikasjonsfond@nmbu.no

I certify that the article will be published with NMBU affiliation, and will be registered in CRISStin and uploaded in Brage NMBU.

Date, applicant's name

¹ If the corresponding author is not the same as the applicant, provide the applicant's name, position and unit in the box provided for additional information.

² If this date is surpassed, you must send a message to publikasjonsfond@nmbu.no so that any promise of support can be maintained.

³ Please, give an explanation.