

Time line for the «bureaucracy» of a PhD-study at MINA

Information to new PhD students

Links to regulations and guidelines

PhD program in Ecology and Management of Natural Resources (PhD coordinator: Kari M Thue)

PhD program Environmental Sciences (PhD coordinator: Mirian Wangen)

Other useful links:
PhD on track
English matters
SoDoc
Forms – PhD education at NMBU

within 2 months:
Hand in form 1.1.1 \(application to the PhD-study\)

initial seminar is the first of three compulsory seminars, and is to be held before approval of the educational plan.

within 6 months: Form 1.1.3 \(education plan\)
remember to attach course description for external courses
1.1.2 \(PhD contract\) \(can also be handed in together with the application\)

Check that courses are in agree with your study plan (ask your PhD coordinator). Transcript from external courses has to be delivered to your PhD coordinator for registration

Time for end seminar

Procedures for finalising the PhD programme

If delayed for any reason: Fill in the form 2.1. changes, contract period

Progress report: annually with deadline January 15

Midway assessment

Progress report: annually with deadline January 15

