

SPRING ACADEMIC SEMINAR SERIES

What is SASS?

SASS is a seminar series designed for the busy researcher. Open to all staff (PhDs and post-docs are welcome!), SASS seminars are casual, no-obligations-required events. Instead of taking precious research hours in the morning or afternoon, seminars in SASS are designed to take place during your lunch hour – 60 minutes or less. Bring your lunch with you to the session and eat while you listen to a seminar!

Fridays, 12:15 – 13:15

Tower building (Tårnbygningen) TU101

Week	Date	Speaker	Seminar
5	30/1	Tim Richardson	Self-Critical Academic Writing
6	6/2	Carl Henrik Gørbitz	Scientific presentation tips (Skills for poster and oral presentations)
7	13/2	Ståle Wig	The Caveman's Guide to Good Writing (How to be understood by someone other than your professor and co-researchers)
8	20/2	Henrik Svensen	Popular science as part of the research project
9	27/2	Deborah Oughton	Ethical Issues Concerning Publication and Authorship
10	6/3	Henrik Svensen	Why bother doing outreach and how it can benefit a research career
11	13/3	Solveig Fossum-Raunehaug	Publishing at NMBU – Info from the Research Administration

Email fodosevent@gmail.com for more information or to register your attendance!